

Spiral Type Auger

A spiral type auger bit is designed for use in sampling soils. It features graduation marks every 6". The overall length of the auger is 36" including the handle. The handle screws on to the auger giving the option for an extension to be added for length needed by 36".

